Item 1 Security and Issuer

Title: Common Shares of Beneficial Interest, par value $.01 per share.

Issuer: Corporate Office Properties Trust ("COPT")
 One Logan Square, Suite 1105
 Philadelphia, PA 19103

On March 16, 1998, Corporate Office Properties Trust, Inc. (formerly known as Royale Investment, Inc. ("Royale")) was reformed as a Maryland real estate investment trust through two consecutive mergers, (a) of Corporate Office Properties Trust, Inc. (the "Company") into COPT, Inc., a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary corporation and (b) COPT, Inc., into COPT a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary Maryland real estate investment trust, and the conversion of each outstanding share of common stock of the Company into one common share of beneficial interest of COPT (the "Reformation"). The Reformation was effected pursuant to a vote of the Company's shareholders at a special meeting of shareholders (the "Special Meeting") called for that purpose.

In connection with the Reformation, the Board of Trustees was classified into three classes and a new Declaration of Trust and new Bylaws were adopted as more fully described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated February 11, 1998 of the Company used in connection with the Special Meeting ("Proxy Statement/Prospectus"). Mr. Shidler's and Clay W. Hamlin's terms as Trustees now each expire in 2001.

In addition to the Reformation, at the Special Meeting the shareholders of the Company also approved the adoption of the 1998 Long Term Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Company believed that a long-term, equity-based incentive plan was important to the retention of its senior management team, and also aligned the economic interests of its senior management team with the economic interests of its shareholders. A copy of the Plan was attached as Appendix D to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

The Reformation was proposed and supported by Mr. Shidler, among other reasons, in order to change COPT's domicile to that of a state which is recognized by real estate investment trust ("REIT") analysts and investors as a domicile of choice for REITs and to achieve greater organizational and investment flexibility. The Reformation was also proposed and supported by Mr. Shidler so as to provide COPT with the structure he believed it needed to execute on its growth plans and, thereby benefit all shareholders by enhancing the long-term value of their investment in COPT shares. The Plan was proposed and supported by Mr. Shidler for the reasons explained above.

Item 4 Purpose of Transaction

The Shidler Shares were acquired for the purpose of exercising substantial influence with respect to the affairs of COPT (formerly Royale) and for the purpose of exchanging general and limited partnership interests in special purpose partnerships for the securities of an issuer then listed on the Nasdaq Small Cap Market tier of Nasdaq Stock Market.

ARTICLE IV

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON CAPITAL STOCK; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

4.1. EFFECT ON CAPITAL STOCK. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of the holder of any capital stock of the Company:

(a) Each share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Company Stock"), of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable common share of beneficial interest, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Shares") of the Trust. Each certificate (each, a "Certificate") representing any such shares of Common Stock shall thereafter represent the right to receive Common Shares. At the Effective Time, all shares of Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist.

(b) Each share of Common Stock issued and held in the Company's treasury at the Effective Time, shall be virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to be outstanding, shall be cancelled and retired without payment of any consideration therefor and shall cease to exist.

(c) At the Effective Time, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Maryland Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of the Maryland Company or the holder of such shares, be cancelled and retired without payment of any consideration therefor.

(d) At the Effective Time, each Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of the Trust or the holder of such shares, be cancelled and retired without payment of any consideration therefor.

(e) Each option to purchase or otherwise acquire shares of Common Stock pursuant to the stock option plan of the Company granted and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of the holder of such option, be converted into and become a right to purchase or otherwise acquire the same number of Common Shares at the same price per share and upon the same terms and subject to the same conditions as applicable to such options immediately prior to the Effective Time.

4.2. CONVERSION OF OUTSTANDING STOCK OF THE COMPANY. From and after the Effective Time, each issued and outstanding share of Common Stock and all rights in respect thereof shall be converted into one fully paid and nonassessable Common Share, and each Certificate nominally representing shares of Common Stock shall for all purposes be deemed to evidence the ownership of an equal number of Common Shares. The holders of Certificates shall not be required immediately to surrender the same in exchange for certificates for Common Shares, but, as Certificates nominally representing shares of Common Stock are surrendered for transfer, the Trust will cause to be issued certificates representing Common Shares, and, at any time upon surrender by any holder of Certificates nominally representing shares of Common Stock, the Trust will cause to be issued therefor certificates for an equal number of Common Shares.

ARTICLE V
